Victor and his wife Mercedes are looking for an apartment. They both work and can afford to pay $1,050 a month for rent.

Victor wants an apartment close to his job. Mercedes wants a large kitchen and a patio. Their two children each want their own bedrooms.

This weekend, Victor and Mercedes are going to look in the newspaper and on the Internet to find a three-bedroom apartment. They are going to compare prices and find a good deal.

Everyone is excited. They are going to move to a new place and meet new people.
