Betty and Teresa are nurses. They work at Fountain View Hospital in the emergency room. Their jobs are very stressful. It's 6:30 Sunday evening, and they just finished their (1) _____.

"What are you doing after (2) _____ today? Are you going straight home?" asks Betty.

"Yes, I don't have any plans for tonight. Alan is (3) _____ the night shift, so he won't be home until tomorrow (4) _____," replies Teresa. "I usually go to bed and then get up when he gets home. We eat (5) _____ and then he goes to bed."

"What about you? What are you doing after work?" asks Teresa.

"I'm going to my mom's house. She's not feeling very well. I want to be sure that she takes her (6) _____. I'm going to cook dinner for her, too. I'll stop at the grocery store on the way to her (7) _____," says Betty.

"What is wrong with your mom? How old is she?" asks Teresa.

"She fell and broke her (8) _____. She's 83 years old, and is in good health, but the (9) _____ said she has osteoporosis," says Betty.

"I'm sorry to hear that," says Teresa. "I hope she gets better. It's not easy to take care of elderly (10) _____."
