

Maria and Her Son Walk to School

Maria and her son walk to school. They leave their house at 7:40, and they arrive at school at 7:55.

The school bell rings at 8:00.

Maria's son is in first grade at Longfellow Elementary School in Compton, California. He is a good student. He likes to read books and solve math problems.

Maria is a student at the same school. She attends English as a Second Language classes in Room R-11. She is learning how to speak, read, and write English.