

Family Pizza Night

Reading Aloud Worksheet

Every Friday after work

John buys pizza for dinner.

Pizza Night

He buys it from a pizza parlor that is two blocks away from his house.

He always orders two medium pizzas. His children like peperoni pizza and he and his wife like Hawaiian pizza. Hawaiian pizza has ham and pineapple on it. John pays $1.75 extra to have mushrooms added on top of his Hawaiian pizza.

Eating pizza for dinner on Fridays is a family tradition for the Jackson family. John's wife Mary likes this tradition and so do his children.

Friday evenings are a good time to relax and spend time with the family. When the children are old they will remember this wonderful family tradition.
