

George Washington and Abraham Lincoln

A. Directions: Read the sentences.

1. George Washington was the first President of the United States. He is called the “Father of Our Country”.
2. Abraham Lincoln was the sixteenth President of the United States.
3. Washington was born on February 22, 1732, and Lincoln was born on February 12, 1809.
4. Both men were involved in major wars. Washington was the commander-in-chief during the Revolutionary War and Lincoln was president during the Civil War.
5. Washington’s family was rich, but Lincoln’s family was poor.
6. Washington owned a plantation in Virginia. He also owned slaves.
7. Before Lincoln became a politician, he worked as a lawyer.
8. Both men were great presidents and both have monuments in Washington, D.C.

B. Directions: Fill-in the circles with the correct words.

Father of Our Country great President owned slaves
born in 1809

wealthy family
16th President lawyer
monument in U.S. capital

born in February
poor family
born in 1732
Civil War

