

Tree House

Read Aloud Activity

Anthony has a tree house in his backyard. His father built it for him.

The tree house is in an old oak tree. Anthony's father nailed pieces of wood to the trunk of the tree. Anthony and his friends climb up the wood steps to the tree house.

On Saturday mornings, Anthony and his friends play in the tree house. They tell jokes, listen to music, and talk.

At noon, Anthony's mother makes lunch for all the boys. She makes hot dogs, hamburgers, potato salad, and chocolate chip cookies. The boys eat the food up in the tree house.

It's fun to go to Anthony's house.
